NATHAN WYATT, born in Virginia, 27 April 1778, and lived to the age of eighty-four years, eight months, and one day. He died 28 December 1862, and was buried in the Bear Creek Cemetery.

Mary Pelkey (Foltsie) Wyatt, his wife, was born in Maryland, 7 July 1777, and departed this life 20 September 1874, aged ninety-seven and three months.

Nathan and Mary Wyatt were married about 1800 on a public highway in Mercer County, Pennsylvania, dressed in homespun linen.

They were the parents of fifteen children, seven boys and eight girls: Samuel, Lydia, Mary, Elizabeth, Susan, Ann, John W., Jane, Thomas, Rebecca, William, Nathan, Rachel, Seduc, and James.

Nathan, Mary and their young family came in the spring of 1837 from their home in Richland County, Ohio, to Jackson Township in DeKalb County and settled near Spencerville. They cleared forty acres of land and thus acquired it from the government. Many of the Wyatt family followed them here to DeKalb County, that was then woods and wilderness, thus causing what was called the Exodus of the tribe of the Wyatts.

In the year 1848, at the cabin home of Samuel Tarney, a group met and organized the Bear Creek class of the Methodist Protestant Church. Nathan was the class leader for most of the last forty years of his life. The class met in members' homes in groves, barns, and the schoolhouse.

About the year 1850, a church house was erected in section thirteen of Jackson Township, and it was named the Bear Creek M.P. Church. About 1882, a new church house was erected in section twenty-two of Jackson Township and named Rehobath M.P. Church. The charter members were Nathan Wyatt and wife; John Wyatt and wife; Samuel Tarney and wife; Amariah Johnson and wife; Abraham Johnson and wife; William Squires and wife; William R. Moore and wife; and Samuel Widney and wife. John Wyatt, one of the charter members of this class, at the time of his death, had a continuous membership for more than sixty-seven years. Of this class nearly one hundred twenty Wyatts were members.

Nathan and Mary were exemplary Christians. They raised their family in the Christian faith. They were loved by all who knew them and Nathan's influence was always on the side of right.

Nathan was a soldier in the War of 1812. After looking over a short sketch of history of the Virginia Wyatts, it is found the Wyatt families who were pioneers to DeKalb County descended from some highly educated, respected and wealthy people. Sir Francis Wyatt was the governor of Virginia in 1621-1622 for his first term, his second being from 1639-1642. Sir Francis fell heir to Boxley, the home and estate of the Wyatts in Virginia and he was buried on the Estate. In later years, it was divided, one part was called "Old Uptown" from the sons of conquest.

Married Sixty-Six Years Ago.

Oct 5 1902

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES WATSON, SENIOR.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, sr., of Jackson township, this county, celebrated their sixty-sixth marriage anniversary the fifth day of this month. Both Mr. and Mrs. Watson are as active as most persons at the age of fifty. Mr. Watson is in his eighty-fifth year, while his wife is five years his junior. Mr. and Mrs. Watson located the farm where they now live before their marriage. On horseback they rode to the very spot where the house now stands, and while Mrs. Watson (then Miss Wyatt) prepared a meal, Mr. Watson cut off the timber and made room for the log cabin. From that time on their life's work has been done on the same farm. It is now among the finest farms in that locality. When the log hut was ready, their wedding day was set. The house was only a huge pile of logs, with a hole cut in at one side for a door and the cracks between the logs were filled with mud. A minister was the next person needed, and word was sent to the Rev. Mr. Robt, then a Methodist minister in Fort Wayne. He rode the entire distance, about thirty miles, on horseback, and there married them. For more than sixty years they have both lived devout Christian lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson have reared four children—one daughter and three sons. The daughter and two sons have always lived with their parents, and now in their declining years, minister to their wants. The other son lives in Huntington, Ind. There seems to be no limit to grandchildren and great-grandchildren and on account of the large circle of relatives and friends, their sixtieth anniversary was attended by only those of the nearest kin. In politics "Uncle Charles," as he is generally called, has always been a Prohibitionist and never, even in township elections, has he ever voted any other ticket. His three sons are also of the same politics. There may be older people in other parts of the State, but this is the first sixtieth wedding anniversary that has ever been celebrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson are perfect types of the early pioneer inhabitants of Northern Indiana. Simple in their lives and tastes, their physical ills were few and their life of enjoyment more complete. Far from the hurry and rush and roar of city life, with none of the harassing cares of business relations, they passed down life's stream as in calm waters, and have rounded out their years in peaceful contentment. They belong to a generation that is rapidly disappearing from the stage of life. Let us not forget their virtues nor fail to honor their memory.

By this Deed, Charles Watson and Rachel Watson his wife of DeKalb County, in the State of Indiana CONVEY AND WARRANT to

S. S. Shutt of DeKalb County, in the State of Indiana for the sum of One Thousand Dollars,
